

BPA Students Take Top National Awards

Two students from Four County Career Center placed in the top three at the 2012 Business Professionals of America (BPA) National Leadership Conference, “Reach New Heights,” in Chicago, Illinois. These students joined over 5,000 other conference delegates from across the nation to participate in national-level business skill competitions. This was BPA’s 46th National Leadership Conference.

The BPA National winners are (LEFT TO RIGHT) Alec Feldhaus (Wauseon) placed 3rd in Computer Network Technology; and Elliott Brown (North Central) placed 1st in Systems Administration Using CISCO.

Business Professionals of America is a national organization for high school, college and middle school students preparing for careers in business and information technology. BPA acts as a cohesive agent in the nationwide networking of education and business and industry. Four County Career Center BPA advisors are Mary Jo Beilharz, Matt Geiger, Tina Short, and Mike Yeager.
