

CBI Team Takes 1st Place

Four County Career Center's Williams County Career Based Intervention students recently placed 1st against teams across Ohio in the State Career Based Intervention Knowledge Bowl contest held in Mt. Vernon. The Knowledge Bowl contest is an academic competition with questions relating to the Ohio Graduation Test. Skills USA is a national organization promoting members in the advancement of the leadership, citizenship, academic, and technological skills. Williams County Career Based Intervention instructor is Tony McCord.

Shown above at the competition are (LEFT TO RIGHT) Logan Doyle (Bryan); Dillon Scranton (Montpelier); Max Taylor (Montpelier); Brad Gilbert (Montpelier); Rikki Starbuck (Hicksville); Cynthia Albus (Hilltop); Lydia Smith (Bryan); Kim Heger (Montpelier); Andrew Blank (Montpelier); Morgan Mundy (Montpelier); and Mr. McCord, Instructor.

