

Electrical Guest Speaker

As part of the Four County Career Center's Electrical career and technical education training, students recently had the opportunity to host guest speaker Kirk Knowles from TDS Telecom in Continental. He presented the basics of telecommunications and job opportunities in this field. Four County Career Center is very appreciative of the commitment of local industries to the training and education of their students. Scott Williams, Electrical instructor, made the arrangements.

