

Law Enforcement Helps WCHS

Four County Career Center's Law Enforcement & Security Tactics students volunteered their time to assist at the Williams County Humane Society (WCHS) spaghetti dinner. The dinner was held prior to the Bryan vs. Evergreen football game and proceeds from the dinner will be used for several animals in need at the WCHS. A certificate of appreciation was presented to the Law Enforcement & Security Tactics students (LEFT TO RIGHT) Mikayla Mundy (Hicksville); Jack Trowbridge (Fairview); Kayla Matney (Ayersville); John Martin (Fairview); and Nick Pepple (Hicksville); from Tracy Dopp (FAR LEFT), WCHS Board Member. Shirley Bard, Event Chairperson was not able to be present during the picture.
