

Library Card Sign Up

In celebration of Library Card Sign Up Month, students at Four County Career Center had the opportunity to sign up for an account at ten public library systems in the four county area. The libraries also had basic information and programs available through their library. The public library is a literacy tool that students will use for the rest of their lives and they were encouraged to make the public library a weekly habit. Librarian Christine Badenhop coordinated the event.

