

2013 Wall of Fame Induction Ceremony

Four County Career Center honored six graduates from the Career Center who have had success in their careers and who will serve as outstanding representatives for the school at the 16th annual “Wall of Fame” awards program Monday evening. Nominations for this honor are open to the public and based on the areas of significant contributions to the individual’s career, the community, education, and Four County Career Center.

The new members were inducted into the “Wall of Fame” during the annual advisory committee dinner where Ellie Cichocki, Workforce Development/Job Placement Coordinator, served as Master of Ceremonies. Superintendent Tim Meister formally welcomed everyone and gave special introductions. The Pledge of Allegiance was led by Morgan Guise, a Fire & Rescue student from Wauseon, and a Student Ambassador. Paige Rains, an Early Childhood Education student from Liberty Center and a Student Ambassador, gave the invocation.

Shelley Beck came to the Career Center from Montpelier High School and enrolled in the Clerical Skills program from which she graduated in 1978. Shelley is currently the Administrative Assistant at the American Cancer Society of the Florida Division and lives in Fort Lauderdale, Florida.

Tracy Dopp enrolled at the Career Center from Stryker High School, entered the Legal Secretarial program and graduated in 2001. She is an Intervention Specialist at Four County Career Center and lives in Bryan.

Deanna (Willeman) Pahl attended the Career Center from Napoleon High School and graduated in 1989 in the Health Occupations program. Deanna is currently a Registered Dental Hygienist at Dental Excellence in Napoleon. Deanna lives in Holgate.

Pamela Fisher-Richards came to the Career Center from Montpelier High School, entered the High Skill Stenography program and graduated in 1979. She is currently a community volunteer where she lives in Glendora, California.

Stacy L. Sauber enrolled at the Career Center from Fairview High School and graduated in 1990 in the Career Based Education program. Stacy is the Controller at Arrow Tru-Line in Archbold and lives in Defiance.

Mathew Wieland attended the Career Center from Bryan High School, entered the Automotive Technologies program and graduated in 1991. He is currently the owner of Wieland’s Auto Repair in Bryan and lives in Bryan.

A picture/plaque of each “Wall of Fame” recipient will be placed in the main entrance at Four County Career Center. A special “Thank You” is extended to all area businesses who continue to employ Career Center students and give them the opportunity to succeed. Nominations are now being accepted for next year’s “Wall of Fame.” Contact the Career Center at 419-267-3331 for nomination forms or visit the website at www.fourcounty.net.
