

2014 Recognition Day

Four County Career Center's 45th annual Senior Recognition Day will be held Wednesday, May 21 starting at 9:15 a.m. at the school.

Certificates marking the completion of their career training will be awarded to 471 seniors, scholarship award winners will be announced and Outstanding Senior Awards will be presented during the ceremonies.

Career Passports containing the student's resume, class competencies listing skills learned at the Career Center, student's grades and attendance data, will be presented to each senior. Career Passports are awarded to all Ohio Career Center program completers for the purpose of providing each student with a set of credentials that can be presented to an employer when seeking employment.

Rick Bachman, Director of Career & Technical Education is in charge of the ceremony. Four seniors will be assisting with the program - Bruno Kissner (Tinora) Commercial Art, will be leading the Pledge of Allegiance; Emily Auch (North Central) Early Childhood Education, will be announcing the community service achievements; while Kari Oberlin (Stryker) Health Careers; and Daniel Avelares (Wauseon) Software Design & Web Development; were chosen as class speakers for the event.

Parents and families of Career Center seniors are invited to attend the ceremony which will be held in the Diesel Technology and Training Center located on the northeast side of the building. Parking is available in the school's east and south parking lots or the student parking lot on the west side of the building.

Four County Career Center is located at the intersection of State Routes 66 and 34, five miles south of Archbold.
