

Cholesterol Screening for Students

Four County Career Center students and staff recently took part in a free cholesterol screening offered by the Corporate and Community Health Promotion Team of the Fulton County Health Center (FCHC) in Wauseon. High blood cholesterol is one of the four major risk factors for heart attack. This screening is made possible through monies raised from the yearly Fulton County Heart Radiothon.

