

Henry County Officials Talk to Students

Four County Career Center recently hosted local government officials from Henry County to discuss their roles as elected officials and use the game “Jeopardy” as a means of teaching students. Shown talking with the students are Bob Hastedt, Henry County Commissioner; and Rob McColley, Community Improvement Corporation Director. Four County Government instructors Jason Blue, Todd Gambler, Dan Muncrick, and Greg Wesche made the arrangements for the day.

