

Students Pass National Test

95% of the seniors in the Veterinarian Assistant career and technical program at Four County Career Center passed the Small Animal Science National Standardized test. This is a hands-on skills assessment and certification which is recognized nationally in the area of small animal science. Veterinarian Assistant instructor Stephanie Pippin was in charge of the testing process.

