

FCCLA National Contestants

Two students from Four County Career Center's Family, Career and Community Leaders of America (FCCLA) have earned the right to advance to national competition held in Washington, D.C, July 5 - 9. Elaine Snyder (LEFT) from Wauseon placed 2nd in Recycle & Redesign; and Naomi Diaz (RIGHT) from Stryker placed 2nd in Fashion Design. The FCCLA participants are challenged to complete a project in their area of career and technical training within a specified time period while being scored by a panel of judges. Both of these students did an outstanding job in their respective competitions.

Family, Career and Community Leaders of America is a national organization for high school and college students where the activities and programs complement classroom instruction by giving students practical experience through application of the skills learned at school. Career Center FCCLA Advisors are Lisa Hall, Peter Herold, Susan Myers, and Doug Tyas.
