

Finance 101: The Game of Life

Four County Career Center students recently had the opportunity to participate in Finance 101: The Game of Life sponsored by Midwest Community Federal Credit Union. The life-size game board teaches students about monthly expenses they may face in the world.

