

HOSA Students Head to Columbus

Forty Four County Career Center Health Occupations Students of America (HOSA) Chapter members have qualified for state HOSA skill competition in Columbus on March 13 & 14 by placing first or second in the regional contests. Contest winners are (FRONT - LEFT TO RIGHT) Cora VanSlyke (Wauseon) Public Service Announcement; Kyra Killy (Wauseon) Public Service Announcement; Becca Mattimore (Delta) Public Service Announcement; Karlie Boylan (Bryan) EMT; Vanessa Williams (Napoleon) Medical Photography; Tres Loyd (Bryan) State Officer Candidate; Miranda Pelland (Delta) Human Growth and Development; Mackenzie Cupp (Montpelier) Career Health Display; Emily Neipp (Delta) Home Health Aide; (MIDDLE - LEFT TO RIGHT) Keisha Gonzalez (Bryan) Career Health Display; Sierra Rex (Tinora) Career Health Display; Madison Bellaire (Defiance) Extemporaneous Writing; Elizabeth Richnafsky (Patrick Henry) Pathophysiology; Nichole Smallwood (Fairview) Medical Terminology; Paige Robeson (Napoleon) Nursing Assistant; Miranda Harris (Patrick Henry) Creative Problem Solving; Anne Keiper (Napoleon) Creative Problem Solving; Aubry Carlisle (Archbold) Dental Terminology; Amy Rethmel (Tinora) Researched Persuasive Speaking; Emma Matheny (Napoleon) Extemporaneous Writing; Mikayla Williams (Montpelier) Career Health Display; (BACK - LEFT TO RIGHT) Audrey Norden (Napoleon) Health Education; Kori Kent (Napoleon) Health Education; Brooke Vollmer (Bryan) Creative Problem Solving; MaTea DeLeon (Evergreen) EMT; Kendra Havens (Evergreen) Job Seeking Skills; Erin Marshal (Fairview) Forensic Medicine; Brenda Ramirez (Delta) Extemporaneous Poster; Sarah Snavelly (Bryan) Prepared Speech; Austin Ramsey (Napoleon) Personal Care; Jared Mullins (Napoleon) Pathophysiology; Jesse Rocha (Archbold) Researched Persuasive Speaking; Natasha Lindhorst (Holgate) Extemporaneous Poster; Michelle Connors (Wauseon) Medical Reading; Kyleigh Brown (Stryker) Career Health Display; Kristen Seeley (Bryan) Forensic Medicine.

HOSA members from all parts of Ohio will be in Columbus to compete for awards and the right to advance to national skill and leadership contests. HOSA Advisors are Donna Badenhop, Robin Hill, Karen Walker and Mike Nye.

