

Veterinarian Assistant Students Take National Test

Seniors in the Veterinarian Assistant career and technical program at Four County Career Center recently took the Small Animal Science National Standardized test. This is a hands-on skills assessment and certification which is recognized nationally in the area of small animal science. Veterinarian Assistant instructor Stephanie Pippin was in charge of the testing process.

