

Career Center Receives Community Service Award

Four County Career Center was honored to accept the Excellence in Community Service Award for their service on behalf of the “Christmas for Kids” program. The award was presented to (LEFT) Rick Bachman, Director of Career & Technical Education; and (SECOND LEFT) Tim Meister, Superintendent; at the Ohio School Boards Association (OSBA) 68th Annual NW Region Fall Conference in Lima. Also (THIRD LEFT) Rick Small, Clear Channel’s Director of Operations along with (FAR RIGHT) Ray Dailey, retired U.S. Marine, both received the Who’s Who Excellence Award for Outstanding Leadership for their past twenty years fundraising effort for the “Christmas for Kids” campaign.

OSBA also recognized three Career Center board members for their outstanding service, Brian Baker and Ron Crawford, both from the Northwest Ohio Educational Service Center; and Christine Oberlin, from Defiance City Schools. Four County Career Center is pleased to be a part of the Ohio School Board Association and their continued dedication and commitment to the schools and students they serve.

