

Senior Recognition Day Ceremony

Four County Career Center's 47th annual Senior Recognition Day will be held Friday, May 20 starting at 9:15 a.m. at the school.

Certificates marking the completion of their career training will be awarded to 416 seniors, scholarship award winners will be announced and Outstanding Senior Awards will be presented during the ceremonies.

Career Passports containing the student's Resume, class competencies listing skills learned at the Career Center, student's grades and attendance data, will be presented to each senior. Career Passports are awarded to all Ohio Career Center program completers for the purpose of providing each student with a set of credentials that can be presented to an employer when seeking employment.

Rick Bachman, Director of Career & Technical Education, is in charge of the ceremony. Seven seniors will be assisting with the program - Stephanie Lambert (Tinora) Visual Art & Design, will be leading the Pledge of Allegiance; Alex Hinojosa (Tinora) Law Enforcement & Security Tactics, Randy Belmares (Fairview) Pre-Engineering, Spencer Hines (Ayersville) Pre-Engineering, and Alexis Myers (Napoleon) Veterinarian Assistant, will be announcing student achievement activities. Jesse Smith (Liberty Center) Electrical, and Kenzie Stein (Edgerton) Veterinarian Assistant; were chosen as class speakers for the event.

Parents and families of Career Center seniors are invited to attend the ceremony which will be held in the Diesel Technology and Training Center located on the northeast side of the building. Parking is available in the school's east and south parking lots or the student parking lot on the west side of the building.

Four County Career Center is located at the intersection of State Routes 66 and 34, five miles south of Archbold.
