

Canine Officer is Guest Speaker

Mark Glanz, Henry County Sheriff Deputy and Andy, the police dog, were the guest speakers today in Four County Career Center's Law Enforcement & Security Tactics and Fire & Rescue classes. Officer Glanz demonstrated the work that Andy assists him with as a police officer and talked about the training and background of being a Canine Officer. The Career Center is thankful for the excellent working relationship that the school has with the Henry County Sheriff's office. Shown with Deputy Glanz (LAST RIGHT) are (LEFT TO RIGHT) Fire & Rescue students Brandon Brown (Holgate) and Levi Sanders (Edgerton); and Law Enforcement & Security Tactics students Robert Montgomery (Patrick Henry) and Cody Robeson (Napoleon). Kevin Thomas, Law Enforcement & Security Tactics Instructor, arranged for the presentation.
