

FCCLA National Leadership Conference

Four County Career Center had two Interior Design students just return from the Family, Career and Community Leaders of America (FCCLA) 2017 National Leadership Conference in Nashville, Tennessee, where they won a National Silver Metal Award. Shown with their metals are (LEFT TO RIGHT) Katie Ewers (Edon) who competed in Interior Design; and Paige Coressel (Archbold) who competed in Fashion Design. There were over 5,000 members from across the nation in attendance. Members competed at the district, and state levels before they advanced to the national level.

Family, Career & Community Leaders of America is a dynamic and effective national student organization that helps young men and women become leaders and addresses important personal, family, work, and social issues through family and consumer sciences education. Interior Design instructor, Lisa Hall attended the conference with them.
