

HOSA Students Head to National Conference

Three students from Four County Career Center placed in the top four in the 2017 Health Occupations Students of America (HOSA) competition at the University of Toledo and have qualified to compete in the HOSA International Leadership Conference with the theme “HOSA - Leadership - Service - Engagement - The Future Starts Now” in Orlando, Florida. Katie Foster will also receive the State Officer of the Year Award at the Conference. These Career Center students will join other HOSA students from across the nation to participate in national-level skill competitions, workshops, and general sessions June 21-24.

Student attending are (LEFT TO RIGHT) Madison Brueshaber (Patrick Henry) and Jaclyn Lovejoy (Hilltop) Health Career Display competition; Molly Feller (Hicksville) Knowledge Test for Human Growth and Development competition; and Katie Foster (Hilltop) award recipient.

Four County Career Center HOSA programs include Health Careers and Sports Fitness & Exercise Science. HOSA Advisors are Donna Badenhop, Robin Hill, Karen Walker and Mike Nye.
