

NTHS Induction Ceremony

Twenty-nine Four County Career Center students were inducted into career education's most prestigious organization, the National Technical Honor Society (NTHS), during a banquet recently held at the Career Center. There are a total of fifty-nine students in the honor society for the 2016-2017 school year.

To be considered for membership, students must have a 3.6 GPA or higher during enrollment at Four County Career Center, 95% attendance, and excellent disciplinary record.

The National Technical Honor Society is America's foremost scholastic honor for excellence in work force education recognizing the scholastic excellence of career center students. The society has over 1,500 chapters worldwide.

Rick Bachman, Director of Career and Technical Education, welcomed students, parents, and local associate school representatives to the recognition banquet. Guest speaker for the evening was Butch Blankenship, Safety Coordinator at Green Bay Packaging and past Career Center graduate in Commercial & Graphic Arts. Advisor for the Four County NTHS is English instructor, Chelsea Redfox.

