

Police Cruiser Donation

JR Jones, West Unity Police Chief; and Josh Fritsch, Village of West Unity Administrator, presented the title to a 2007 Chevy Impala Police Cruiser to Kevin Thomas, instructor in Four County Career Center's Law Enforcement & Security Tactics program at the Career Center. The donated cruiser will be utilized in valuable training for the juniors and seniors in the program.
