

Student Places Top Ten in the Nation

Four County Career Center is pleased to announce that Gage Bergeon (Ayersville) placed in the top ten at the 2017 National Leadership Conference of Business Professionals of America (BPA) held in Orlando, Florida. Gage competed in Network Administration Using Microsoft.

Career Center students joined over 5,000 other conference delegates from across the nation to participate in national-level business skill competitions. This was BPA's 51st National Leadership Conference.

Business Professionals of America is a national organization for high school, college and middle school students preparing for careers in business and information technology. BPA acts as a cohesive agent in the nationwide networking of education and business and industry. Four County Career Center BPA advisors are Mary Jo Beilharz, Matt Geiger, Tim Ricketts, and Blake Rockey.
