

County Government Month

As part of “County Government Month,” Four County Career Center hosted State Senator Robert McColley and State Representative James Hoops along with Henry County Commissioners who discussed their roles as elected officials and used the game “Jeopardy” as a means of teaching students. Shown with students during their visit are (FRONT - LEFT TO RIGHT) Elie Hilgenbert (Patrick Henry) Health Careers; Maria Wyss (Patrick Henry) Health Careers; Tiffany Bechstein (Liberty Center) Law Enforcement & Security Tactics; Tyler Conmay (Napoleon) Law Enforcement & Security Tactics; Commissioner Glenn Miller; (BACK - LEFT TO RIGHT) Representative Hoops; Meghan Garcia (Napoleon) Veterinarian Assistant; Senator McColley; Payton Buehrer (Napoleon) Law Enforcement & Security Tactics; Commissioner Tom VonDeylen; Collin Johnson (Patrick Henry) Welding Fabrication; and Jared Muncy (Patrick Henry) Law Enforcement & Security Tactics.

Government instructors Jason Blue, Brandon Brywczynski, Todd Gambler, and Bill Parsley made the arrangements for the day.
