

Patrol Bicycles Donated

Wauseon Police Chief Keith Torbet and Patrolman John Borchardt, presented three patrol bicycles to Kevin Thomas, instructor in Four County Career Center's Law Enforcement & Security Tactics program at the Career Center. The donated patrol bicycles will be utilized in valuable training for the juniors and seniors in the program.
