

Students Compete at FCCLA National Conference

Family, Career & Community Leaders of America is a dynamic and effective national student organization that helps young men and women become leaders and addresses important personal, family, work, and social issues through family and consumer sciences education. Early Childhood Education instructor, Susan Myers and Interior Design instructor, Lisa Hall attended the conference with them.
