

Instructor is Guest Speaker at BGSU

Four County Career Center's Law Enforcement & Security Tactics instructor Kevin Thomas (LEFT) along with Jared Sanchez (RIGHT) spoke at the Bowling Green State University campus to the Criminal Justice Student Association regarding law enforcement training and career opportunities. Criminal Justice Student Association vice president, Alex Miller (CENTER) invited them to speak at the event. Miller and Sanchez are graduates of the Law Enforcement & Security Tactics program at the Career Center. Miller is currently a Military Police Officer in the Ohio National Guard and a Criminal Justice student at BGSU. Sanchez is a Police Officer who works in the Village of Stryker. The Law Enforcement & Security Tactics program is a two year program at the Career Center for juniors and seniors in the four county school districts.

