

New Staff

The Career Center is welcoming seven new staff members for the 2018-2019 school year.

Tim Myers is the new Math instructor at the Career Center. He holds a Bachelor's Degree in Mathematics from Eastern Mennonite University. Tim has been in education for the past 19 years. He lives in Archbold with his wife, Heather and their three sons.

The new VOSE position is being held by Carrie Nofziger. Carrie holds a Bachelor's Degree in Intervention Specialist from the University of Toledo and has spent four years in education. She lives in Wauseon with her husband, Lucas and their son.

Holli Horn is the new Guidance Counselor at the Career Center. She holds a Bachelor of Science Degree in Wellness/Corporate Fitness from Defiance College and a Master's Degree in School Counseling from Bowling Green State University. Holli has spent 14 years in education and lives in Defiance with her husband, Tom and their three children.

Taking the position of In-School Studies Monitor is Steve Grimes. He spent the past 26 years working for the Bryan Police Department where he recently retired. He is also a past graduate of Four County Career Center. Steve lives in Bryan with his wife, Elizabeth and they have two children.

Tracy Harding is the new Automotive Technologies instructor at the Career Center. He holds an Associate's Degree in Auto Tech GM ASEP from Owens Community College and is a past graduate of Four County Career Center. He has worked at GM dealerships for the past 18 years and at the Edgerton Police Department for 16 years. This is Tracy's first year in education. He lives in Bryan with his wife, Misty and their four children.

The new Science instructor is Drew Steyer. He holds a Bachelor's Degree in Biology and a Master's Degree in Education from Bowling Green State University. Drew has been in education for two years and lives in Defiance.

Jenny Waldvogel is the new Custodian at the Career Center. She has spent past few years working as a custodian and the previous 23 years as a floral designer. Jenny lives in Stryker with her two children.

New staff members shown above are (LEFT TO RIGHT) Tim Myers; Carrie Nofziger; Holli Horn; Steve Grimes; Tracy Harding; Drew Steyer; and Jenny Waldvogel.

