

FCCLA National Contes-

Taylor Mitchey (Wauseon) (CENTER) and Monica Meiring (Wauseon) (RIGHT) from the Interior Design program at Four County Career Center recently earned the right to advance to national Family, Career and Community Leaders of America (FCCLA) competition held in Anaheim, California, July 10-14, 2011 by obtaining a Gold Rating at FCCLA State competition in Interior Design Scenario. Jessica Vold (Napoleon) (LEFT) from Early Childhood Education also received National Recognition for Early Childhood Education Leaders At Work at the FCCLA State competition. The FCCLA participants are challenged to complete a project in their area of career and technical training within a specified time period while being scored by a panel of judges.

Family, Career and Community Leaders of America is a national organization for high school and college students where the activities and programs complement classroom instruction by giving students practical experience through application of the skills learned at school. Career Center FCCLA Advisors are Kathy Delagrange, Pete Herold, Susan Myers, Debbie Rezabek, and Doug Tyas.
