English Department

The Junior English teachers wish you the best as you get even closer to your dream careers and adult independence! Hopefully, after a year of learning important skills like novel analyzing, public speaking, persuasive arguing, study techniques, grammar, short story evaluation, and language dissection, you will have the tools you need to be successful during your very last year of high school and beyond. It has been a wonderful experience watching you grow this year, and it will be even cooler to see how you mature over the summer and throughout your senior tenure. Our other hope is that you make the most of the last big seasonal break you have as a kid. Enjoy nature, get some exercise, and read a book! Remember, everybody that wins is a reader. Thanks for stopping by this year, and don't be afraid to pop in for a visit from time to time! English

Social Studies Department

This year in social studies, students have been looking at the world in a different way through challenging the views about history and the government. This was done by bringing in a vast number of speakers whose occupations were a judge, attorney, a probation officer, a member of CCNO, and a local county commissioner. The students were able to engage and ask questions to each of these speakers. Lastly, students learned about the importance of voting and how one vote matters. Teachers followed this up by holding two voter registration days.

Message

Graduation is the culmination of 13 years of education. In most societies, there is the "Right Of Passage." In our society that is graduation from high school. The door is wide open at this time for students to spread their wings and fly. Some will achieve success. Some will struggle for awhile before realizing that "time waits for no one" and some never will figure out that hard work and fair play will achieve an easier way of getting along in life. It is my hope that all in Powersports have learned enough about how the world works that they are fully prepared to succeed. The greatest joy of an instructor is to watch students become a productive part of our society.
